

flowers.

LEI CONTEST

Saturday, November 12, 2011 • Makaeo County Pavilion

DIVISIONS

- I. Wili - winding method (commonly referred to as haku)
- II. Kui - stringing method

CATEGORIES

- A. Coffee Lei
Lei must be made from only the parts of the coffee tree. Can include blossoms, beans, leaves, etc.
- B. Floral & Foliage Lei
Lei must be made of fresh flowers, foliage or naturally dried

PRIZES

$200 Overall Grand Prize

|                 |              |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Wili Coffee Lei |              |
| $100           | First Place  |
| $75            | Second Place |
| $50            | Third Place  |

|                |              |
|----------------|--------------|
| Kui Coffee Lei |              |
| $100          | First Place  |
| $75           | Second Place |
| $50           | Third Place  |

|                         |              |
|-------------------------|--------------|
| Wili Floral/Foliage Lei |              |
| $100                   | First Place  |
| $75                    | Second Place |
| $50                    | Third Place  |

|                               |              |
|-------------------------------|--------------|
| Kui Floral/Foliage Coffee Lei |              |
| $100                         | First Place  |
| $75                          | Second Place |
| $50                          | Third Place  |

RULES

- Applicants must purchase a Kona Coffee Cultural Festival button
- Lei must be wearable
- Fresh and natural flowers and foliage only
- Lei must be 32 inches long and left untied
- Entries must be your own work
- An applicant may submit one lei per division, lei must be wearable
- All entries must be submitted by 10:00 am Saturday, Nov. 12, 2011 at Makaeo Pavilion
- ALL ENTRIES BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE KONA COFFEE CULTURAL FESTIVAL
- Judging will commence at 11:00 am and the winner will be announced shortly thereafter. Displayed until 1:00 p.m.

